MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of St. John Francis Regis Parish is to foster a family of faith, built on yesterday's foundation, so that today's spirituality, service, and education will continue to grow into tomorrow's Catholic community.

"Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and tomorrow."

Saints Alive!

St. Thomas Aquinas

Jan 25: St. Paul's Conversion (c. 4 B.C.- c. 64). So important for Christianity – it is repeated three times in the Acts of the Apostles (chapter 9, 22:6ff and 26:12-18) and again in Galatians 1:15 -16. Read all three accounts today!

Jan 26: St. Timothy and Titus (first century). Read about Timothy in Acts 16, 18:5, 19:22, 29:4. Read about Titus in 2 Corinthians 8:6, 16-17, 23. They are “partners and co-workers (with St. Paul) in your service” Even now!

Jan 27: St. Angela Merici (1470-1540) grew up on the banks of Lake Como who took a pilgrimage to the Holy Land – lost her eyesight in Crete but finished the pilgrimage blind. Her eyesight was miraculously restored back in Crete (!) and on her return she went on to found the “oldest and most considerable teaching order in the Catholic Church” – the Ursulines.

January 28: St. Thomas Aquinas (1225-1274). This radical teenager broke from his parent's wishes and became a Dominican. By the conclusion of his studies in Naples, Paris and Köln, his full genius was apparent to all. He worked a synthesis of all philosophy and theology. He is the angelic doctor! His somber tomb is maintained in the Jacobins in Toulouse.

Bd. Julian Maunoir (1606-1683). This simple Jesuit labored tirelessly in Brittany to suppress witchcraft and paganism that was still cloaked under Catholic ritual. His mission preaching was fierce; his confessional manner was gentle.

Bd. Joseph Freinademetz (1852-1908). This Austrian joined the Divine Word Missionaries so he could proclaim the gospel in China. In 6 years he had 1000 in 'RCIA' spread over 30 villages. In heaven, he hoped that his glorified body would look Chinese and not Austrian!

Ecclesiastes 3:1-2, 8

For everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven: a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted. A time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.

2021 MARCH FOR LIFE

A Message from the March for Life:

The protection of all of those who participate in the annual March, as well as the many law enforcement personnel and others who work tirelessly each year to ensure a safe and peaceful event, is a top priority of the March for Life. In light of the fact that we are in the midst of a pandemic which may be peaking, and in view of the heightened pressures that law enforcement officers and others are currently facing in and around the Capitol, this year's March for Life will look different.

The annual rally will take place virtually and we are asking all participants to stay home and to join the March virtually. We will invite a small group of pro-life leaders from across the country to march in Washington, DC this year. These leaders will represent pro-life Americans everywhere who, each in their own unique ways, work to make abortion unthinkable and build a culture where every human life is valued and protected.

We are profoundly grateful for the countless women, men, and families who sacrifice to come out in such great numbers each year as a witness for life – and we look forward to being together in person next year. As for this year's march, we look forward to being with you virtually.

ST. JOHN FRANCIS
