MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of St. John Francis Regis Parish is to foster a family of faith, built on yesterday's foundation, so that today's spirituality, service, and education will continue to grow into tomorrow's Catholic community.

"Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and tomorrow."

St. Joan of Arc

Ecclesiastes 3:1-2, 8

For everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven: a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted. A time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.

May 30: St. Joan of Arc (1412-1431). I love her openness to mysticism and even more so her mother's courage in appealing to the Holy See twenty years after her daughter's death. Successfully, Joan was exonerated then beatified and canonized by 1920.

St. Ferdinand of Castile (1199-1252) was a king who battled for 27 years to free one-third of Spain from the Moors. I asked his prayers in the cathedral of Burgos which he restored.

May 31: Visitation! Mary and Elizabeth are so keenly aware of the savior and prophet that grow in their respective wombs; meditate on the embrace and the spirit-led prophecy between these two glorious women.

June 1: St. Justin Martyr (100-165). Oh yes. The man. He was a Greek from Samaria (Shechem) who travelled as a visiting philosopher from Ephesus to Alexandria. In Saints Alive!

Ephesus, an old, respectable, meek man spoke to him about the Christ and "my spirit was immediately set on fire, and affection for the friends of Christ took hold of me." He was executed in Rome by Marcus Aurelius with 6 others. Again, I love authentic witnesses who on their tabula rasa wrote the account of his martyrdom.

June 2: The Martyrs of Lyons (177+). Oh yes. Again, authentic eyewitnesses record the ghastly execution of these martyrs: Sanctus, Blandina, Maturus, Attalus. The dungeon and amphitheater where they suffered and died can still be visited in Lyons, France.

June 3: St. Charles Lwanga and companions (1886+) were pages at the court of King Mwanga who refused to give the king the sexual favors he demand. Charles became the head catechist and baptized the younger of the pages at night before the 22 Catholics and 24 Protestants were marched 16 miles to the place of execution on Lake Victoria in Uganda.

June 4: St. Quirinus (308), the bishop in what is now Sisak, Croatia was seized for the crime of being a Christian, was marched to what is now Hungary and was martyred there. His true relics were brought to Rome in the early fifth century and are now venerated at Santa Maria in Trastevere. St. Jerome (from Dalmatia) proudly speaks of this fellow countryman.

June 5: St. Boniface (675-754) is called the apostle of Germany. He was from England and left with a missionary monastic band to evangelize central Germany. I hope to see his relics in Fulda, along with his bloodied breviary still bearing the hatchet marks of his martyrdom.
